Dear Way To Go Traveler,

More than 200 juried costumed crafters sell a wide selection of handmade holiday items at Old-Fashioned Christmas in the Woods. This October is the 27th year of hosting visitors from across the country at Shaker Woods in Columbia, OH.

In a manicured, wooded setting juried crafters will have their booths decorated in an old-fashioned holiday theme. The exhibitors will demonstrate their crafts and sell a wide selection of handmade holiday items, as well as traditional crafts. The level grounds feature sawdust footpaths for easy walking and next to entrance motor coach parking. Holiday craft items, decorations and handcrafted Christmas ornaments are featured—in addition to holiday clothing, wreaths and floral arrangements. Christmas in the Woods ranked No. 1 of the 100 Best Classic & Contemporary Craft Shows in the U.S. by Sunshine Magazine.
